Each of the above named deputies I appoint with full and utmost confidence in their abilities. Should any member of the Empire have need of the services of the College of Arms, my deputies and I stand ready to assist as needed.

Please note the dates for the Phoenix King of Arms. Due to mundane commitments, Don Migele will be taking on the position as of January 1, 2016. Until that date, Sir Ansel shall continue his dedicated service. After January 1, please direct all Eastern regional reports and/or questions to Don Migele.

On a final note, I have recently been in conversation with Their Royal Majesties of Terre Neuve concerning the arms of a member of their Kingdom who has, sadly, been taken from us too soon. Dame Rhiannon (mundanely, Rebecca Gibson), late of the Kingdom of Terre Neuve, left behind numerous friends and family who loved her and will cherish her memory. Among those who love and miss her are a minor son, who is also an active member of the Kingdom of Terre Neuve.

It is the desire of Their Royal Majesties to protect the arms of Dame Rhiannon until such time as her son may assume those arms as his own, in memory of his mother. In my years with the College of Arms, I had to admit that this is a request I had not encountered before. However, I find such a desire to be admirable and built upon a true foundation of chivalry and honor.

As I examined the heraldry manual, as well as all publications regarding heraldic wills within the Empire, I could find nothing that specifically addresses and would grant this request. On the subject, sadly, all of our publications are mute.

But, as I believe that the purpose of the College of Arms is to follow the spirit of the law and not the letter of the law, I see no specific reason to disallow this request.

Thus, and in my official capacity as Imperial Sovereign of Arms, I hereby transfer the arms of Dame Rhiannon (“Per chevron Purpure and Sable, a chevron between three estoiles Argent”) to the Kingdom of Terre Neuve, under the protection of Their Royal Majesties. These arms shall be held in a heraldic trust, under the administration of whomever Their Royal Majesties of Terre Neuve choose to appoint as administrator, until such time as the minor son of the late Dame Rhiannon comes of age and may assume the arms as his own.

This I declare to be effective as of the publication of this Letter of Registration and Return.

In Service to the Empire,

HIS HOLINESS, SEBASTIAN I
VI PATRIARCH OF ADRIA
IMPERIAL SOVEREIGN OF ARMS
